

What happens to your food waste?

Food waste is collected from the kerbside on your allocated day and loaded into the truck

It's then turned into energy

It is unloaded at the processing plant where it is shredded and heat treated in a sealed tank

as well as fertilisers and compost